Terms and Conditions for Training Courses

Delegate Information

For practical courses such as Confined Spaces and Plant training, delegates should provide their own Personal Protective Equipment in a clean working order which includes safety helmets, protective gloves, safety footwear etc

Please advise us in advance if delegate(s) have any special dietary requirements, any physical disabilities that would impact upon the course or any communication barriers that would impact upon the training course. We will endeavour to cater for everyone but we do require notification in advance.

Delegates should be physically fit to withstand the rigours of any practical based training. If there are any doubts about the fitness of a delegate to attend a training course then the onus will be on the client and delegate to seek a medical opinion.

Delegates are required to arrive at the course in good time. If the delegate is unable to attend on the day of training due to unforeseen circumstances we will still have to charge you as we still incur the costs and will not be able to sell the place to another client.

Cancellations

Coppolo & Coyde reserves the right to cancel or alter the dates or provision of service, the venue and the individual or organisation providing the service. In the event of a cancellation, bookings will normally be transferred to the next available course unless the client specifically requests otherwise. If a booking is cancelled or transferred to a different course by the client, Coppolo & Coyde reserves the right to apply the following charges;

Payments

Your place on a course will be confirmed once payment has been made (training certificates will not be dispatched until full payment is received).
